24 O Lord, how manifold are your works! * In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.
 25 Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, * creatures both small and great.
 26 There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, * which you have made for the sport of it.
 27 All of them look to you * to give them their food in due season.

28 You give it to them; they gather it; * you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
 29 You hide your face, and they are terrified; * you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.
 30 You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; * and so you renew the face of the earth.
 31 May your glory, O Lord, endure for ever; * may you rejoice in all your works;

32 you look at the earth and it trembles; * you touch the mountains and they smoke.
 33 I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; * I will praise my God while I have my being.
 34 May these words of mine please you; * I will rejoice in the Lord.
 35b * Bless the Lord, O my soul. Hallelujah!
